SCOTT WEBSTER TO SUCCEED JERRY AGEE AS CEO AND CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF MBDA INC.

The Board of MBDA and the Board of Directors of MBDA Incorporated, the US subsidiary of MBDA, have approved the appointment of Scott Webster as Chairman of the Board, CEO and Managing Director of MBDA Incorporated. Scott is replacing Jerry Agee who has expertly led MBDA Incorporated since 2009 and is retiring.

Scott has served on the Board of Directors of MBDA Incorporated since 2009 and will formally succeed Jerry this month. Jerry and Scott have been working together closely the past several weeks to ensure a smooth transfer of responsibilities.

Scott is a co-founder of Orbital Sciences Corporation, one of America's leading space system manufacturers. He served as Orbital's head of Business Development, President of its rocket systems division and Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of its satellite services subsidiary. He has been a member of Orbital's board of directors since inception.

Antoine Bouvier, CEO of MBDA, said "Along with the MBDA Management team, I would like to warmly thank Jerry for his personal commitment, energy and dedication to MBDA. Especially, I want to point out Jerry's great efforts and success in expanding the US business in Washington, DC and in Huntsville, Alabama."

Note to editors

With a significant presence in five European countries and within the USA, in 2012 MBDA achieved a turnover of 3 billion euros with an order book of 9.8 billion euros. With more than 90 armed forces customers in the world, MBDA is a world leader in missiles and missile systems.

MBDA is the only group capable of designing and producing missiles and missile systems that correspond to the full range of current and future operational needs of the three armed forces (land, sea and air). In total, the group offers a range of 45 missile systems and countermeasures products already in operational service and more than 15 others currently in development.

MBDA is jointly held by BAE SYSTEMS (37.5%), EADS (37.5%) and FINMECCANICA (25%).
